

The News.

We hope the shallow story of the capture of Richmond, will not mislead any of our readers. It will fall in due time, but has not been so yet.

There is nothing new to be said about the election returns from the States of Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, except that the last named State has done much better than first reported for the Union cause. Voorhees gets in by the skin of his teeth and through fraud at that, but his seat will be contested and probably given to a better and more loyal man.

Gov. Curtin telegraphs that the State is probably Union on the home vote by 2,000 majority.

The military situation remains unchanged. Gold is going up—going up because the copperhead brokers and speculators in Wall Street see fit to have it so. There is no other reason.

The Joint Discussions between Hon. I. C. Sloan and Hon. George B. Smith.

It is well known to our readers that several joint political discussions have already taken place between the Hon. I. C. Sloan and the Hon. George B. Smith, the two opposing candidates for Congress in this district, and that others are yet to take place before the campaign closes. It may not be generally known that these debates were arranged at the express solicitation of the said George B. Smith—the having challenged Mr. Sloan to meet him upon the stump and discuss the political issues of the day with him. Smith is pretty well known in these parts as a professional stumpster, a ready, off-hand debater, and an unscrupulous demagogue from instinct and education. Mr. Sloan hesitated some time before accepting Mr. Smith's challenge, for two reasons; first, because he knew his voice was not sufficiently strong for out-door speaking, and secondly, because he had good reason to fear that Smith would not prove to be the most truthful, candid and honorable opponent that could be selected; but fearing that his refusal to meet Mr. Smith might be regarded as if he feared to go before the people and discuss their differences, he yielded to Smith's request and made the appointments accordingly.

As Mr. Sloan anticipated, his voice has failed him so that he is only able to converse in a whisper, but has had less reason to complain of Mr. Smith's method of conducting the discussions than he expected at the outset. Several of these joint debates have been held, and the results have been perfectly satisfactory to Mr. Sloan and the friends of the Union cause. Notwithstanding the reputation which this Goliath of the copperhead party possesses for having a great gift of gab, his loss of voice and clear-headed opponent finds no difficulty whatever in demonstrating the preeminently superior merits of those principles enunciated at Baltimore, over the two-sided, hypocritical, Janesville concern put together at Chicago, by the convicted and unconvicted traitors who met there on the 20th of August—the Woods, the Vallandighams, the Coxes and the Voorhees of the copperhead faction.

And just here is where the laugh comes in. From every point where these discussions have been held, some shameless liar has written to the Madison Patriot what purports to be an account of the same, but what is in reality, a tissue of falsehoods from beginning to end. We do not know whether Mr. Smith pays somebody for writing these trashes of misrepresentation or not, but suspect he must, as no ordinary rascal could be induced to crowd so many falsehoods into so small a compass without a liberal remuneration from some quarter. According to this venacious scribbler, ever encountering that has taken place thus far, has resulted in a perfect triumph for Mr. Smith, and Mr. Sloan has been utterly used up, defeated, squelched, scooped out and annihilated. If one could believe the accounts of what this writer solemnly avers in regard to these discussions, it would be a great kindness to Mr. Sloan if some friend would gather up what little there is left of him on a couple of chips and carry him out of sight. But the simple truth is these lusty falsehoods are sought to be propagated through the columns of the slimy and scurrilous Patriot with the hope of sustaining a sinking and infamous cause. It is the miserable swagger and blarney of a set of men whose party is sinking every hour, and which the people of the Second Congressional District will bury in November beyond the hope of resurrection.

STARTLING EVIDENCES OF THE LACK OF A FREE PRESS.—Milwaukee News, Chicago Times, New York World. Either one and all of them daily exhaust the vocabulary of falsehood and blackguardism against the administration; and say all they can command language to express to encourage their "Southern brethren." Let every body incur the loss of a free press.

GENERAL Hoyer, in a recent speech at Indianapolis, said "General Grant is a physiologist curiosity—all backbone from the crown of his head to the sole of his foot; and whoever you see him back down, you may bid farewell to this Government—Grant cannot be whipped."

OUTGAMING COUNTY DEMOCRATIC TICKET.—For Sheriff, James McGillan; Treasurer, Edward H. Stone; Clerk of Board of Supervisors, William H. Lamphrey; District Attorney, J. H. Wigham; Clerk of Circuit Court, Milo Cates; Coroner, G. H. Marston; Surveyor, John Stevens.

Matt. H. Carpenter at Chicago.

According to the Chicago papers, the speech of Matt. H. Carpenter in that city on Thursday evening last, was a grand success. The Tribune says:

"Throughout his whole address he was interrupted by hearty applause, which at the close was perfectly deafening."

The Tribune says: "The speaker resumed his seat amid a perfect whirlwind of applause, which as it died into silence again and again rose in its thunder, shaking the very building with its reverberations."

GEN. HEINTZELMAN, described in a Wheeling, Va., paper, as "a quickspoken, silver-haired, handsome, earnest-looking man, about fifty-five years of age," followed Senator WILLEY at a Union meeting in Wheeling on the 5th, in a speech, in which he said: "I can see but two issues in the contest—an honorable peace accomplished by a vigorous war, or an armistice, a convention of the States, and a final dissolution of the Union and eternal war."

DODGE COUNTY UNION TICKET.—For County Treasurer, Joseph Harris; Clerk of the Board, John Garland; Register of Deeds, J. F. Gilson; County Surveyor, Wm. K. Warren; Clerk of the Court, Wm. K. Dresser; Sheriff, J. P. Simon; District Attorney, D. A. Reed; Coroner, C. F. Arlun.

MAUSHERA COUNTY UNION TICKET.—For Assembly, Oscar Babcock; Sheriff, B. S. Williams; Clerk Circuit Court, A. Strong; County Treasurer, Gordon H. Gile; Clerk of the Board, C. H. Stowers; Register of Deeds, S. R. Clark; District Attorney, T. H. Walker; County Surveyor, Edgar Sears; Coroner, M. W. Bate.

DODGE COUNTY DEMOCRATIC TICKET.—For Sheriff, William L. Parker; Register, Richard Mertz; Treasurer, Lawrence Connor; District Attorney, Amos J. Rising; Clerk of Board of Supervisors, Charles End; Clerk of Circuit Court, James B. Hays; Surveyor, William M. Morse; Coroner, John C. Lewis.

SONGS CONVENTION.—The Wisconsin county agricultural society is out with a call for a northwestern songster convention, to be held at Rockford, Ill., Oct. 26th 1864, to continue three days. A large exhibition of seed, sirups and sugar, together with the most approved machinery for manufacture, is desired.

IN LOUISIANA GENERAL CANBY is laboring zealously to alleviate the condition of the Union prisoners in Texas, by sending them clothing and other comforts, and has made arrangements for the exchange of nearly four thousand men.

THE UNION candidate for Governor of Missouri, Colonel Thomas C. Fletcher, is now in the field at the head of his regiment, looking after rebels. His opponent is making copperhead speeches.

CHAS. G. RODEL has been nominated by the democracy of the 3d district, as their candidate for Congress. Col. Amasa Cobb is the Union candidate.

ROME AND ITALY.—[From the N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.] At last the astute monarch of France has condescended to gratify the hopes and aspirations of the Italian people and government. A treaty has been concluded between Italy and France, by virtue of which it is agreed between the parties that—

Napoleon promises to recall his garrison from the papal dominions within the period of two years, but to do so gradually, so as to give sufficient time for the pope to organize a body guard to be composed of volunteers from Catholic Europe.

This body guard shall never be so large as to give any uneasiness to Italy, and is not to exceed the number of twelve thousand men.

The kingdom of Italy engages in the meantime to protect from all violence and interference the actual possessions of the pope.

Italy assumes a part of the Roman debt, corresponding to the importance of the dominion which the pope has lost.

Both Napoleon and Victor Emmanuel agree that no other nation shall intervene in respect to the dominions left to the pope.

The fact that the capital of Italy is to be transferred to Florence would seem to indicate that Rome is not to be used as the seat of government. At all events, not for years to come.

Thus at last, the vexed Italian question is likely to be settled without the aid of the sword.

NOT VERY HARD TIMES.—We learn from Mr. W. A. P. Morris, of Richmond & Co.'s land office, that within the last six months about six hundred mortgages have been paid off in this county, amounting to some $240,000. This indicates anything but hard times among the people.—Madison Journal.

Hon. Schuyler Colfax Coming.
Letters has been received from Hon. Schuyler Colfax, assuring the committee that he will certainly be here on the 26th inst., and address the people. He has just closed a very successful campaign in his own district, and secured a re-election by over twelve hundred majority over his copperhead competitor. If the weather is propitious, the great mass meeting here on the 26th, will be one of the grandest gatherings ever assembled in Southern Wisconsin. Let the Union men of Rock, Dane, Jefferson, Walworth and Green counties be prepared to make such a demonstration as will make the armed and unarmed traitors quake in their boots.

Rev. N. Colyar, D. D. of Chicago, will preach in the Baptist Church to-morrow morning and evening.
Prof. Emerson of Beloit will supply the pulpit of the Congregational Church to-morrow morning and evening.
TAKEN HIS DEPARTURE.—Rev. Mr. Kinney and family took their departure from this city yesterday afternoon. A large number of their friends accompanied them to the cars to see them off.

Dr. V. CLARENCE PRICE is now at the Hyatt House, and will remain until Monday morning. Those who wish to consult him will do well to bear this in mind.

THEATRE.—By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that McFarland's theatrical company commences a short engagement at Leppin's Hall on Monday evening. They have been playing at Madison and Milwaukee for a number of weeks past to crowded houses, and are highly spoken of by the press in those cities.

MEETING AT THE COURT ROOM THIS EVENING.—The various Committees for making arrangements for the mass meeting in this City on the 26th instant, and the mass meeting at Beloit on the 19th instant, are requested to meet at the Court Room this evening at 7 o'clock to consider and perfect the arrangements for such meetings.

JOHN R. BENNETT, President of Union Club.

THE DRAFT AGAIN.—The town of San Prairie in Dane county, and the 7th Ward of Watertown, in Jefferson county, were submitted to a supplementary draft this morning, both localities having failed to produce the men on a former draft. It is the purpose of the Provost Marshal of this district, to make every sub-district furnish the men called for; and as fast as he ascertains that the number previously drawn will not do it, he resorts to the wheel again. Twenty-six names were drawn from the town of San Prairie before, but as no men were obtained, 26 more were called on, out of 103 tickets. We give the names below.

Levi H. Persons, H. A. Walworth, Wm. H. Fox, Alfred Rowe, L. M. Fuller, Frank Stevens, Jewett Hall, W. F. Harwick, Franklin Warner, Chas. Abbey, A. C. Osborn, John Oleson, Matthias Kliner, Henry Hammer, Chas. G. Noyes, John Parkinson, Jas. B. Maudslop, A. F. Persons, Peter Kanouse, Joseph Temio, Fred Schadd, John Delamater, Peter Abernethy, Rexford Pockham.

From the 7th Ward of Watertown, 20 names were drawn from 38 tickets, as follows:

John McGoldrick, Frank Casheine, Peter J. Mesick, August Noek, Livingston Stevens, John Guire, Thomas Apitt, Philip Wright, John McDonald, Joseph Wood, Christie Clarkin, Isaac Smith, Barney Cohol, John Sprague, Luke Butler, John O'Connell, Sylvester Coy, Samuel Rustin, Amos P. Wood, John Trail.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.—For the last time, I hereby give notice that all notes and accounts due me must be paid at once. I have made this request several times before. From a good many I have not even received regrets. If any of my customers think that I have not waited long enough, I shall with differ them without making any words. A settlement I will have. The wordbacks or a judgment is the only way it can be settled.

A Strong Indorsement of a Valuable and Popular Medicine.

To Wm. Booth, General Western Agent for Dr. A. Strickland, and Co.—I hereby certify that I have been afflicted with piles for the last eight years. I have tried all the remedies that I could think of, or that have been recommended to me, but have received no relief from any until I tried the bottle of "Strickland's Pile Remedy" you recommended to me. I can truly say that it entirely cured me. My brother, Mr. Chas. L. Glass, was completely paralyzed by this distressing complaint, and sent home from the army, being unable to do duty. He was entirely cured by the remainder of the bottle unused by me. H. B. GLASS. I can truly say that the above is correct, and I cannot recommend it too highly. CHAS. L. GLASS. The above remedy is sold by all the druggists in this city. Oct8daw1411

FROM GRANT'S ARMY.

New York, Oct. 15.—It is rumored in this city that Richmond has fallen, not generally credited, however.

New York, Oct. 15.—The Herald's correspondent with Gregg's corps, says a reconnaissance was made by Maj. McCabe with 250 men of the 13th Pa. regiment on the 11th to ascertain the strength of the enemy at Stone Creek Station on the south side of the railroad. They passed the rebel picket line capturing 13 prisoners and several mules and horses, and burned two rebel wagons and returned without the loss of a man. The rebel force at Stone Creek was found to be 7,000 infantry and cavalry under Wade Hampton.

New York, Oct. 15.—The Herald's 5th corps correspondent says the total loss in that corps in the Rapidan fight was 2,031, of whom 1,521 were missing.

New York, Oct. 15.—Gen. Butler becoming convinced that our new soldiers are not at all in rebel entrenchments, has notified the rebel authorities that he has also put rebel officers and soldiers at work on the Dutch Gap Canal. He has also proposed an exchange of all naval prisoners and transmitted statements of our officers that colored troops had been murdered after capture by rebel regiments in front of the army of the James.

The Herald's 10th corps correspondent says the rebels are busy throwing up a new line of works across the central road about a mile outside their main line enclosing the city.

The statements of Richmond papers that our infantry were driven in the last fight are falsehoods. Our infantry were not driven a single inch nor did they capture a single infantry soldier.

New York, Oct. 15.—The Times' 5th corps correspondent at Weldon Railroad, Oct. 13th, says the recent engagement resulted in nothing more than the holding of our picket line, which was seriously threatened. The firing was sharp and severe, while the artillery fire became at times very heavy. But very few casualties occurred.

Large numbers of recruits and convalescents are constantly arriving, and they appear to be a hardy and intelligent class of men.

THE ELECTIONS.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 14.—The official union majority in this county is 534. Coffroth Democrat has fifty majority in Franklin county, and 600 majority in the district on the home vote.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 14.—Returns of the Constitutional election come in slow, and the result is doubtful. The friends of Emancipation think it will be adopted by a small majority unless slave holding counties give larger majorities than are anticipated.

A party of guerrillas captured the westward bound train on the B. & O. R. R. last night, robbed the passengers and burned the cars. No further particulars have been received.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 14.—Official union majority in this city is 7,341. In the 5th Congressional district there has 955 majority with Buck county to boot from.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 14.—As the full returns come in, the Union majority increases. Governor Morton's majority will be at least 25,000.

As far as heard from, the Legislature stands as follows: Senate, a tie; House, six Union majority.

The Democrats elect only two Congressmen certain—Allen in the First and Curry in the Second District. Washburn will contest the seat of Voorhees, whom the Democrats claim to have elected, and there is a probability that that malignant copperhead will not disgrace the next Congress after all, by his presence. His alleged majority is a fraud, as will be abundantly proved.

The following Union members are certainly elected to wit: John H. Farquhar in the Fourth district; George W. Julian in the Fifth district; Ebenezer Dumont in the Sixth district; Godlove S. Orth in the Eighth; Schuyler Colfax in the Ninth; Joseph H. Deffenbach in the Tenth, and Angus M. Sullivan in the Eleventh. It being certain that Henry D. Washburn will be awarded Voorhees' seat, you may guess him also among the certainists. This will make the Indiana delegation in the next Congress, beginning March 4, 1865, nine Union and two Democrats—a Union gain of five, the delegation in the present Congress standing seven Democrats to only four Unionists.

New York, Oct. 14.—The Commercial special from Philadelphia says Culver, Republican Congressman, 40th District, is elected by 165 majority.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 14.—The following returns are official: 1st District, Randall, democrat, maj. 4,167; 2d, O'Neil, union, maj. 4,167; 3d, Myers, union, maj. 1,105; 4th, union, maj. 3,278; 5th, Ross, democrat, maj. 3,576; 6th, Lehigh Co, democrat, maj. 1,000; 7th, Lehigh Co, democrat, maj. 317; 8th, Berks Co, democrat, majority 338.

FROM SHERIDAN'S ARMY.

New York, Oct. 15.—The Herald's Washington special says among those prominently named for successorship to Chief Justice are Ex-Sec'y Chase, Sec'y Stanton, Judge Advocate Gen. Holt, and Solicitor Whiting. It is hardly probable, however, that any selection had been made.

FROM THE SOUTH.

New York, Oct. 14.—Richmond papers say the battle on Friday last created great excitement. All business was suspended, and every body worked on the fortifications. Even the schools were closed and the Union prisoners were buried south.

The Examiner says the papers by a mistaken policy claims that the confederates won a victory Friday.

The Engineer says negroes were impressed into the service. After speaking of the need of troops it urges taking men from everywhere and every occupation by force.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 14.—Special despatch to the Bulletin from Baltimore to-day says a North Carolina paper of the 4th inst. states that a letter was hourly expected from the rebel Vice President Stephens defining his position and views on the peace question now agitating the public. They also contain the following remarkable statements.

Vice President Stephens has told gentlemen in Raleigh that his views incline strongly to an immediate effort for peace by negotiation. Mr. Stephens is represented as saying that he thought the time had come for the people of the South to make known to those of the North especially to the peace party of that section, they are ready to settle upon the sovereignty of states and to restore the old government, should the North guarantee the right of property, and the majority of the people so decide.

The gentleman who furnished the news is a man of high character. He saw and conversed with the Vice President and would not be likely to misrepresent him, and yet there are many that hardly credit the story. Mr. Stephens has written a letter for publication, and the matter will be soon put at rest.

The papers also say that there is a powerful and growing desire in Georgia to stop the war now. We have no doubt of it, but we hardly expected such gentlemen as Vice President Stephens and Governor Brown to lend themselves in favor of reconciliation upon any terms.

New York, October 15.—Rebel newspapers of the 12th contain the following:

The Examiner says though Grant is quiet he is not idle; being busy night and day rendering his positions impregnable. His next point of attack will be on the Boynton road, over which the rebels wagon their supplies around a position held by our troops on the Weldon railroad.

The Richmond Dispatch says Sherman was in Nashville when Hood made his brilliant flank movement and is cut off from his army.

Jeff Davis in a speech before Hood's army, told Cheatham's Division to be of good cheer, for in a little while their faces would be turned homeward, and their feet press Tennessee soil.

Sheridan's destruction of property in the Shenandoah Valley, a great bowling, and the promise of a great reward, abundant remuneration when they advance again beyond the Potomac. They claim to have captured at least a million dollars worth of quartermaster stores in the recent raid in Western Virginia.

The Richmond Examiner of yesterday contains a letter from Palmetto, Ga., giving an account of Jeff Davis' visit to headquarters. In describing the effect of Davis' speech, it says that when he turned to Cheatham's division of Tennesseans, and said, "Be of good cheer; within a short time your faces will be turned homeward, and your feet pressing Tennessee soil," the crowd burst into tumultuous manifestations of enthusiasm.

On the same occasion Gen. Howell Cobb made a speech. Gen. Hood was called up, but he was not able to say that he would be ready to give the command forward in a day or two, and they would be all ready to live on parched corn and beef.

The Sentinel of the 14th says. The situation in Georgia is of absorbing interest. No conjunction of the war has been so pregnant at once of solicitude and hope.

The Examiner says Sherman has fallen into an abyss, from which Lincoln might be glad to sacrifice Atlanta and Chattanooga, in order to relieve him. All talk about Hood as being able to cut Sherman's communications and isolate him.

At Columbus, S. C., Jeff Davis made another speech, in which he said Hood's eye was on a point of Sherman's communications far beyond where he had been assailed.

The Examiner rejoices over a rumor of the recapturing of Atlanta, taking five of Sherman's corps' prisoners, and giving the rest pell mell towards Tennessee.

The Charleston Courier of October 3d, comes out squarely against arming negroes.
